TOM HALPIN INJURED

Not kace at Exposition.

Thomas J. Halpin, of the Boston A. A., is another star middle distance runner, who, like Homer Baker, may not be able to represent his club at the national championships, at the Panama exposition. This fact was brought to light yesterday when Halpin, in answering an invitation extended to him by the Millrose Athletic Association to compete in their special 660-yard event at Celtic Park on July 10, said he had received an injury while cranking an automobile.

In the White Sox have a signal tipping station at home over the rest of the route. With the same Pep shown by Tigers and White Sox, the Boston entry should be entitled to at least a shade.

Winning Philosophy.

While Francis Ouimet's golf wasn't quite so good, or nearly so good as it generally is, in the recent Open Champion his rare philosophy was still better than par.

"I played badly," he said, "but I could have played worse. But that part of it didn't matter. I had a corking good time, which is what I play golf for. I don't ever want in 10:23, and then continued up the course for the next two, fighting the to win another championship if losing one is going to freshmen. The youngsters proved more of a match for the first crew, spoil my week. For sometimes you can win, and sometimes you can't, but in the end you generally get what is com-

And when you are not at the top of your game you are not going to win, and it is worse than foolish to fret or bother about it, since there is noth-than foolish to fret or bother about it is not fret or bother about i "the game plays itself. And when you are not at the top ing to be done except to take what you get."

Boston, June 19.—The St. Louis Browns and Boston Red Sox were tied at five runs each after nine innings today, when O'Loughlin, the umpire, called the game to allow the former team to catch a train.

The Browns had jumped into a threerun lead in the eighth by making four tellies on Wagner's error, a fielder's choice, three hits and a wild pitch by Mays.

The crowd was the second largest of the meeting, the clubhouse, in particular, proving popular.
